

CONSTITUTION OF CARLETON UNIVERSITY BIOETHICS SOCIETY

Article I

Name of the Organization

The Organization shall be known as Carleton University Bioethics Society, and herein be referred to as CUBES. No other name shall be used in the advertisement or representation of the club.

Article II

Purpose of the Organization

The organization shall work towards:

1. List your club's missions.

To provide a safe and inclusive environment for Carleton University students to engage in meaningful discussions, analysis, and solution-oriented conversations on various public health topics. Our mission is to create a space where members feel comfortable exploring real and relevant bioethical dilemmas facing our communities today, while supporting each other's intellectual growth and personal development.

2. List your club's vision.

To cultivate a vibrant community of students passionate about bioethics and public health, where members can gain practical experience, expand their knowledge beyond the classroom, and develop skills essential for their future careers in health sciences, public health, medicine, etc. We envision a club where students can not only engage in academic discourse but also form lasting connections and friendships with peers who share their interests and values.

3. List your club's objectives and goals.

- a. Facilitate regular meetings and events where members can engage in open and respectful discussions on complex public health issues, including ethical dilemmas and societal challenges.
- b. Provide networking opportunities for health science students to connect with peers, faculty members, and professionals in the field, fostering collaboration and mentorship.
- c. Organize seminars, workshops, and guest speaker sessions to deepen members' understanding of bioethics, public health policy, and current research trends.
- d. Foster leadership development and active participation among members through opportunities to organize and lead club initiatives and events.
- e. Increase awareness and understanding of bioethical principles and their application in real-world scenarios within the Carleton University community and beyond.

 - c. Any ballot with multiple boxes clearly marked will be discarded as “spoiled.”
 - d. Upon counting of the vote, the candidate with the most votes will be considered elected to the position.

Article VIII

Impeachment

To remove a member, our Club will first consult the CUSA Clubs Membership Removal Committee (MRC). The CUSA Clubs Membership Removal Committee (MRC) will advise on the next steps for the club. Should the CUSA Clubs Membership Removal Committee (MRC) advise that the club proceed with membership removal, the following steps will take place:

Impeachment for Removing an Executive Role

1. Grounds for impeachment of a club member include any violation of the constitution, the governing documents of CUSA, committing an act (or acts) which negatively affects and/or harms the interests of the clubs and its members, and/or failure to fulfill executive duties.
2. Any member can bring forward a request for impeachment to any executive. Within 10 days of receiving this request, the executive will host a meeting with the general membership. At this meeting, the complaint will be reviewed. The member bringing forward the complaint and the accused executive shall be given time to speak.
3. A vote for impeachment with the general membership will be conducted. The accused executive shall not be permitted to vote. A simple majority will be needed to impeach the executive. Impeachment of an executive results in their removal from office and as a member of the club.

Member Impeachment

1. Grounds for impeachment of a club member include any violation of the constitution, the governing documents of CUSA, and committing an act (or acts) which negatively affects and/or harms the interests of the clubs and its members.
2. Any member can bring forward a request for impeachment to any executive. Within 10 days of receiving this request, the executive will host a meeting. At this meeting, the complaint will be reviewed. The individual bringing forward the complaint and the person accused shall be given time to speak.
3. A vote for impeachment within the executive will be conducted. A simple majority of executives will be needed to impeach the member. Impeachment of a member results in their removal as a member of the club.

Article IX

Amendments

1. Any member can propose an amendment to the constitution. This amendment will be presented at the annual general meeting and a vote will take place with the general membership to adopt the new amendment.
2. A simple majority will be required to adopt the new amendment.

Article X

Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Organization, all assets gained through CUSA shall be returned to CUSA and all other assets shall be given to the Ottawa Food Bank.
